MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing company.
Only $10.85 at Chapman's art store.
Additional Council Bluffs news on the seventh page.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Richard H. Gittens and Miss Emma E. Smith, both of Boone township.

Clark's O. N. T. spool cotton and Marshall's linen thread, the ladies of Council Bluffs have fallen in love with for its general excellence in all kinds of sewing and fancy work. John Beno & Co.

Work will be commenced next Monday morning plating the Evans tract in the western part of the city, north of Broadway. The tract is a quite a large one, and the work will require several days.

The new curbing around the court house grounds has been completed, and adds much to their appearance. When the grounds are sodded the external appearances will be more in keeping with the internal arrangements of the beautiful structure.

Eleven of the lots offered for sale in Burke's addition have been sold in the Omaha parties, who intend building in the near future. Mr. Grimm, of the World, has purchased a lot in this addition and will build at once a $1,500 cottage.

The electric lighting plant at the state institution for the deaf and dumb is not yet in running order, but a test of the whole plant will be made some time next week, and it is expected to have the system in practical operation shortly afterward.

Two carloads of slate have arrived for the roof of the new school building.
The contract for this work is in the hands of the Omaha Slate and Roofing company. Several men will be put to work on the job and it will be completed in about a week.

The heavy rain of Tuesday night prevented any work being done on the paving yesterday forenoon. Work was resumed after dinner, and by noon today the paving of Sixth avenue will be completed. From there the paving force of McAdam & Amberg will go to Seventh avenue, which will be paved between Main and Sixth streets.

The examination of the parties arrested for stopping the fast mail train on the "Q" last Sunday afternoon will take place Saturday morning. Eight of the parties have been arrested, and warrants are out for two more. The greater part of the arrested parties are in the county jail, as but few of them could furnish bail. The case against one of them will be dismissed, but the others will be held for trial.

Wickham & Co. will begin work Monday on the paving of Sixth street between First and Fifth avenues. Seventh street is also to be paved between these same avenues. As soon as these two streets are paved work will be commenced on the paving of the extension of Broadway between the bridge over the waterworks settling basin and the end of the eastern approach to the new bridge. The entire work will be finished before the end of the present month.

The soliciting committee which is raising money for the celebration of the opening of the bridge is not meeting with the success desired, as but little of the required amount has yet been subscribed. The next meeting of the committee will be held in Omaha next Monday afternoon, and it is desired to have the amount raised before that time. Omaha has already raised its part, and the business men are requested to subscribe liberally for the purpose in order that the arrangements may not be delayed.

The intimidation made in the Nonpareil that Sheriff O'Neill was starving the prisoners at the county jail comes in amusing contrast with the advice offered by the same paper less than a year ago, that the feed should be cut down so as to make jail life more unpleasant. The bill of fare remains the same as it always has been under Sheriff O'Neill. Prisoners released from the jail have frankly declared that they have been well fed there, and the appearance of those still retained indicates that they are not losing any flesh.
It is no easy matter to convince the public that Sheriff O'Neill is abusing the prisoners in any way.

A certain traveling man who represents a well-known hotel in Omaha house of this city, has caused a married lady of this city considerable annoyance of late, by following her upon the streets whenever she happens to be out of an evening. The lady, who is the wife of a prominent hotelier doing business on Broadway, has complained to her husband, and the indications are that the drummer will soon find himself in trouble. The wife wants her persecutor arrested, but the husband has no use for the courts and will attend to the matter himself. Bets are freely offered that the traveling man will go out on his next trip with a peeled nose and a black eye.

WOMEN AS CHURCH WORKERS

The Annual Meeting of Their Iowa Mission Board.

PROGRAMME FOR FALL RACES.

A Rest in the District Court—The Farmers' Insurance Meeting—Shipping Convicts—Methodist Elders Confer Together.

Missionary Women.

The Iowa branch of the Woman's Board of missions is now holding its twelfth annual meeting in this city. In character the organization is distinctively representative, being composed of the ladies who are foremost in works of charity and missions. The representatives present are from most of the societies of the state, both senior and junior. About seventy-five delegates are present.

The organization convened yesterday morning in the Congregational church.
At 8:30 the executive committee met and considered the business features of the work. At 10 o'clock the formal opening took place. Mrs. Dr. Magoun, of Grinnell college, officiating as chairman, and Mrs. McLellan, of Tabor, as secretary.

At 11 o'clock the question of "Mission Work in Sunday Schools," was discussed by Mrs. Dr. Frisbie, of Des Moines, in place of Mrs. W. E. De Riemer, of Miles, who was absent. Following were presented the reports of the vice presidents of the associations throughout the state.

At 1:45 p. m. the association recon-vened. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Dr. Frisbie. An address of welcome by Mrs. Dr. H. A. Montgomery was responded to by Mrs. Dr.
Magoun. The greeting from the W. B. M.
L. by Mrs. C. H. Case, of Chicago, was followed by salutations from representatives of other societies. These were the Methodist Episcopal by Mrs.
Alexander, Baptist by Mrs. Dr. Cookey, the Presbyterian by Mrs. Dr. Phelps.
The treasurer, Mrs. E. R. Potter, of Grinnell, submitted her report which showed the association to be in a good condition financially. The "Thank Offerings" have more than doubled during the past year. The junior and juvenile societies have generally increased, both in membership and power.

The secretary's report was a summary of the work done by the society during the past year. The organization has adopted twelve new missionaries since its last meeting, which promises much for the future.

At 3:15 Mrs. N. G. Clark, of Grinnell, read the paper assigned to Mrs. H. B.
Lewis, of Dubuque, who was absent.
"Does It Pay?" an able discussion of the work performed by the women in this particular field. The work already accomplished; the grand results which have been reached; the reasons why the work "pays," why any sacrifice should be made; and how it may be saved.

The "Young Ladies' Hour" was set for 3:35. A letter from Miss Bliss, secretary of the Junior society, was read by Mrs. J. Harkness. The Junior societies throughout the state reported through their delegates, which reports show the condition of the work to be most flattering. The missionary address by Miss Mattie Josslyn, assigned for this hour, was postponed until the evening session, and the children's meeting was held. A large number of little folks came into the church and occupied the front seats. Brief and instructive addresses were made by Mrs.
Dr. Magoun, Mrs. Hall, a returned missionary, and others. "What a Penny May Do" was told by Mrs. Hall, while Mrs. Magoun told the children what portion of the work they were expected to do during the ensuing year.

At the evening service, the church was well filled and a most interesting session resulted. Rev. G. W. Crofts, pastor of the Congregational church delivered an affecting address which was followed by Mrs. H. Case, who gave a very interesting account of the London conference, or the world's convention of missions, held last June, at which the speaker was a delegate. The session closed with the address of Miss Josslyn, which was a very effective production.

Following is the programme for the sessions of to-day: 9:00—Devotional exercises. Reports from vice presidents. Reports of committees. Discussion.

10:15—Prayer hour, led by Mrs. C. K.
Woodruff, Decorah.
11:00—Question drawer, conducted by Mrs. L. M. Ross, Council Bluffs.
THURSDAY AFTERNOON.
1:45—Opening exercises. Discussion, "Mission Bands," led by Mrs. J. C.
Miller, Manchester. "Our Periodicals," Mrs. M. R. Smith, Davenport.
2:45—Election of officers. Question drawer.

3:30—Paper, "The Right Use of Money," Mrs. M. L. Kelsey, Grinnell.
Discussion.
4:15—Missionary address. Closing exercises.

The attendance at the sessions of yesterday was very good, but this will doubtless be increased to-day, as the work in hand is very instructive and should be listened to by everyone.

Boots, shoes. Kinnehan's, 326 B'way.

A Fall Meeting.
The Union Park Driving association has decided to hold a fall trotting meeting, November 1, 2 and 3, 1888. Purses aggregating nearly $2,000 will be offered, and it is expected that there will be a large number of fast trotters entered. The following is the programme:

First day, November 1.—2:35 trotting, purse, $250. 2:25 trotting and pacing, purse, $250.

Second day, November 2.—3:00 trotting, purse, $250. 2:40 trotting, purse, $250.

Third day, November 3.—2:30 trotting, purse, $250. 2:25 pacing, purse, $250. Two-year-olds trotting and pacing, purse, $200. Ed. Rosewater, Geo. Whiz and Axel barred.

Entries close October 25, at 11 o'clock
P. M.

Purses divided as follows: Fifty per cent to first horse; thirty per cent to second and twenty per cent to third.

Happily Joined.

Still another barque has been launched upon the matrimonial sea. Its occupants are Mr. William A. Grom-weg and Miss Anna Fox. The bride is the daughter of Colonel John Fox, and the groom is the nephew of Senator Groneweg. Both are well known in this city and deservedly held in high esteem by all who know them.

The ceremony which united them in heart and life was performed Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, on Washington avenue, and in the presence of the intimate friends and relatives of the principals.
At 8 o'clock the happy couple stood before Rev. Dr. Plummer, by whom their pledges of love and loyalty were solemnized. The wedding supper was elaborated and the presents elegant and numerous. At the conclusion of the festivities the happy couple stepped across the street into their own house, which the groom had prepared for their reception. Thus life is begun with them practically and auspiciously, and the earnest wishes of all friends for their happiness and prosperity abide with them.

Meeting of Elders.
The presiding elders of the Des Moines Methodist conference held a meeting in this city yesterday for the purpose of making the apportionments of the money to be raised for benevolent purposes for the ensuing year. There were five presiding elders present—T.
McKay Stuart D. D., Clarinda; C. W.
Blodgett D. D., Atlantic; W. W. Ramsey, Boone; W. T. Smith, Council Bluffs and W. H. W. Rees, Des Moines.
No other business of any importance was transacted at the meeting.

For Sale Cheap—Lots near the bridge to parties who will build in interest. No dress or call on J. R. Rice, No. 110 Main street, Council Bluffs.

Morehouse & Co. are binding books in board covers at 50c each.

Will Lose Their Votes.
Deputy Sheriff Currie and Conner returned yesterday morning from Fort Madison, where they went to take a quartette of sentenced criminals. The officers left again last night for the pen, in charge of four more prisoners. They were John Murray, alias Gleason, John Lee, alias Clancy, Thomas Barrett and W. P. Talbot. It is said that two more trips to take all the criminals sentenced this term to the pen.

Money loaned on furniture, pianos, diamonds, horses, buggies, or anything of value at lowest rate of interest. No publicity; fair and honorable dealing.

received at Tibbitts.

The Police Hatch.

Squire Schurz disposed of the few victims arraigned in police court yesterday morning with his usual dispatch.
Frank Horn, Joe Olinger and Frank Green were all drunks, and they were taxed $8.10 each. They failed to liquidate, and were slid back into the hole.
Ed Carver and Robert Senior were two worthless disciples of Jesse James, and the court relieved them of their spare cash and private arsenals and turned them loose.

Rose Linde, as Seibel in Faust, next Friday night, at Dohany's.

Mrs. L. Simmons, dressmaker, 314 Broadway, over Eisenman's, an electric motor line.

Reserve your seats for Emma Juch before opera date and save money.

First Ward Republicans.
The First Ward Republican club will hold a meeting at John Hammer's office to-night, Thursday, October 11. Walter I. Smith, A. S. Hazleton and other speakers will be present. Every person in the ward who intends to vote for Harrison and Morton on the 6th of November is invited to be present and assist in the permanent organization of the club.
